Arrival of Bigh Bigg of the Bast.

The steamship North Pacific, with the sees party on board, stole a march on the city resterday afternoon, fouching her wharf at 1820. She left Otympia about six o'clock or Tuesday evening, anchored for the night this side of the town, next morning put into one or two of the mill ports, which the party impectus, estiled in at Port Townsend, thence that on the morning of the special points and of a few weeks since the oil trade. A mass meeting of oil net was held at Oil City Pa., a short see and the following was signed by sms and individuals:—Whereas, the sale will be held to be beaten, and it is said that at lenst show price of oil requires of producers, the at now me, the producers, land owners, then the producers, land owners, there, residents of Pennsylvania oil of, do hereby hind ourselves to others a cammence the drilling of any more wells be period of six months from the last day betting is lively."

The account given below which we clip from the Clipper (withouts word of comment) will be of interest at the present groment, as the news of the result of the contest is hourly expected by delegraph. Tuesday mérrins our San Francisco dispatches stated, that so great was the interest manifested in the coming trotting match that even stocks had lost their excitement. The authority mentioned above states: "The two famous trotting maters—Goldsmith Maid and Lucy—are now as reaks for the Pacific slope, there to contest against the wonderful California bred horse Occident, for the supremacy of the trotting turl of America and the rich purses officed by the State Agricultural Societies at Sacramente on Saturday, the Pacific inst., between Lucy and Goldsmith Maid, for a purse of $10,000, and the second $7,500, between the same mares at San Francisco, on Saturday, Oct. 5th. The following Saturday, Goldsmith Maid and Occident tipel at Sacramento for a purse of similar value, Bastern turfmen must not calculate too surely on the rictory of either Goldsmith Maid of $7,500, and exactly a week afterwards Occident tries conclusions with Lucy at San Francisco for a purse of similar value. Eastern turfmen must not calculate too surely on the victory of cither Goldsmith Midd of Lucy in these contests, for Governor Stanford's horse is a most formidable opponent for them both. In a public trial, three heats, Occident trotted the first heat in 2:193. He is being trained by Jim Eoff, and we learn that on the morning of the 18th of August he trotted helf a mile am 1:063, and report even mays that he has occasionally gone down to 1:033. The California turfmen believe he carnot be heaten, and it is said that at lenst $250,000 will be lost by them if either the Maid or Lucy can outtrot or outlast him. The time that will be made in the fourthcoming trots is put down by the Golden State

Saw Francisco, Sept. II—As usual, the press denounce the verdict of the jury in the Fair case, but give no reasons to prove those twelve men perjured themselves. In reference to the trial, the Alta of this morning says the following, which is true: Three minutes after the jury retired, on first believe in the first degree. No change took place until 8 o'clock on Sanday reming, when Brington and McGee succumbed and agreed to an acquittal. The majority of the jury from the first had a doubt in their minds and would never consent to reader a verdict but for acquittal. Foreman Brington held out longer and discussed the question of insently. He failed to make any impression, and having fought for searly forty hours, he came to the conclusion that the combined judgment of ten colleagues might be superforted his and that his conclusions might possibly be wreng. He declared that if he bered he would do so on this side of the grave. He was first to sign the verdict not guilty.
